(the “Company”)

21 March 2016

Dear Sir/Madam

1. INTRODUCTION

1.1 Summary. We refer to Resolution 8 in the Notice of 54th Annual General Meeting (“AGM”) of the Company convening the AGM to be held on 22 April 2016, relating to the proposed adoption of the New Constitution (as defined in paragraph 2.2 below), which will be tabled for the approval of the shareholders of the Company (“Shareholders”) by way of a Special Resolution at the AGM (“Proposed Adoption of the New Constitution”).

1.2 This Letter. The purpose of this Letter is to provide Shareholders with information relating to the Proposed Adoption of the New Constitution.

1.3 Disclaimer. The Singapore Exchange Securities Trading Limited (“SGX-ST”) takes no responsibility for the accuracy of any statements or opinions made or reports contained in this Letter. Shareholders who are in any doubt as to the action they should take, should consult their stockbrokers or other professional advisers immediately.

2. THE PROPOSED ADOPTION OF THE NEW CONSTITUTION

2.1 Background. The Companies (Amendment) Act 2014 (the “Amendment Act”), which was passed in Parliament on 8 October 2014 and took effect in phases on 1 July 2015 and 3 January 2016, respectively, introduced wide-ranging changes to the Companies Act. The changes are aimed at reducing the regulatory burden on companies, providing greater business flexibility and improving the corporate governance landscape in Singapore. The key changes include the introduction of a multiple proxies regime to enfranchise indirect investors and CPF investors, the simplification of the procedures for a company’s use of electronic transmission to serve notices and documents on members, and the merger of the memorandum and articles of association of a company into a single document called the “constitution”.

2.2 Rationale for the New Constitution. Pursuant to new section 4(13) of the Companies Act (as amended by the Amendment Act), the memorandum and articles of association of the Company that were in force immediately before 3 January 2016 are collectively deemed to constitute, and have effect as, the constitution of the Company with effect from 3 January 2016 (the “Existing Constitution”).

Instead of making alterations throughout the Existing Constitution in order to update and streamline its provisions generally and to be in line with the changes to the regulatory framework, the Company is proposing to adopt a new constitution (the “New Constitution”) in place of the Existing Constitution. The New Constitution will contain provisions, inter alia, that take into account the changes to the Companies Act introduced pursuant to the Amendment Act. The New Constitution also contains updated provisions which are consistent with the listing rules of the SGX-ST prevailing as at 8 March 2016 (the “Latest Practicable Date”), in compliance with Rule 730(2) of the Listing Manual of the SGX-ST (the “Listing Manual”). The New Constitution will also include provisions to address the personal data protection regime in Singapore.

In this regard, Resolution 8 in relation to the Proposed Adoption of the New Constitution will be proposed as a Special Resolution for Shareholders’ approval at the AGM.

2.3 Summary of Principal Provisions. The following is a summary of the principal provisions of the New Constitution which are significantly different from the equivalent provisions in the Existing Constitution, or which have been included in the New Constitution as new provisions, and should be read in conjunction with the New Constitution which is set out in its entirety in Appendix 2 to this Letter. Numbered Articles referred to in the following summary pertain to relevant provisions of the New Constitution, unless otherwise stated.

2.3.1 Companies Act

The following Articles include provisions which are in line with the Companies Act, as amended pursuant to the Amendment Act:

- (a) Article 1 (Article 2 of the Existing Constitution). Article 1, which is the interpretation section of the New Constitution, includes the following new and/or updated provisions:
 - (i) an updated definition of “in writing” to make it clear that this expression includes any representation or reproduction of words, symbols or other information which may be displayed in a visible form, whether physical or electronic. This would facilitate, for example, a proxy instrument being in either physical or electronic form;
 - (ii) new definitions of “registered address” and “address” to make it clear that these expressions mean, in relation to any Shareholder, his physical address for the service or delivery of notices or documents personally or by post, except where otherwise expressly specified;

LETTER TO SHAREHOLDERS

- (iii) a new provision stating that the expressions “Depositor”, “Depository”, “Depository Agent” and “Depository Register” shall have the meanings ascribed to them respectively in the Securities and Futures Act, Chapter 289 of Singapore (the “SFA”). This follows the migration of the provisions in the Companies Act which relate to the Central Depository System to the SFA pursuant to the Amendment Act;
 - (iv) a new provision stating that the expressions “current address”, “electronic communication” and “relevant intermediary” shall have the meanings ascribed to them respectively in the Companies Act. This follows the introduction of new provisions facilitating electronic communication and the multiple proxies regime pursuant to the Amendment Act; and
 - (v) a new provision stating that a Special Resolution shall be effective for any purpose for which an Ordinary Resolution is expressed to be required under the New Constitution.
- (b) Article 6(B) (No equivalent provision in the Existing Constitution). Article 6(B) is a new provision which provides that new shares may be issued for no consideration. This is in line with new section 68 of the Companies Act, which clarifies that a company having a share capital may issue shares for which no consideration is payable to the issuing company.
- (c) Article 12 (Article 5 of the Existing Constitution). Article 12, which relates to the Company’s power to alter its share capital, has new provisions which:
- (i) empower the Company, by Ordinary Resolution, to convert its share capital or any class of shares from one currency to another currency. This is in line with new section 73 of the Companies Act, which sets out the procedure for such re-denominations; and
 - (ii) empower the Company, by Special Resolution, to convert one class of shares into another class of shares. This is in line with new section 74A of the Companies Act, which sets out the procedure for such conversions.
- (d) Article 17 (Article 15 of the Existing Constitution). Article 17, which relates to the Company’s power to pay commissions or brokerage on any issue of shares, additionally provides that such commissions or brokerage may be satisfied in cash and/or by the allotment of fully or partly paid shares. This is in line with new section 67 of the Companies Act which allows a company to use its share capital to pay any expenses, including brokerage and commission, incurred directly in the issue of new shares.
- (e) Article 56 (Article 74 of the Existing Constitution). Article 56, which relates to the routine business that is transacted at an Annual General Meeting, includes updates which:
- (i) substitute the references to “balance-sheet” with “financial statements”, and references to the “reports of the Directors and the Auditors” with “Directors’ statement and Auditor’s report”, respectively, for consistency with the updated terminology in the Companies Act;

LETTER TO SHAREHOLDERS

- (ii) clarify that the routine business items include, in addition to the appointment of new Directors, the re-appointment of Directors retiring by rotation or otherwise at the Annual General Meeting; and
 - (iii) clarify the types of Directors' remuneration which will be subject to approval by Shareholders as routine business.
- (f) Article 64(B) (Article 79 of the Existing Constitution). Article 64(B), which relates to the method of voting at a general meeting where mandatory polling is not required, contains reduced thresholds for the eligibility to demand a poll of 5% (previously one-tenth) of the total voting rights of the members having the right to vote at the meeting, and 5% (previously 10%) of the total sum paid up on all the shares held by the members conferring a right to vote at the meeting, respectively. The reduced thresholds are in line with section 178 of the Companies Act, as amended pursuant to the Amendment Act.
- (g) Articles 68, 74 and 76(A) (Articles 85, 91 and 90 of the Existing Constitution). Articles 68, 74 and 76(A), which relate to the voting rights of Shareholders, contain new provisions which cater to the multiple proxies regime introduced by the Amendment Act. The multiple proxies regime allows "relevant intermediaries", such as banks, capital markets services licence holders which provide custodial services for securities and the Central Provident Fund Board, to appoint more than two proxies to attend, speak and vote at general meetings. In particular:
- (i) Article 68 provides that in the case of a Shareholder who is a "relevant intermediary" and who is represented at a general meeting by two or more proxies, each proxy shall be entitled to vote on a show of hands. This is in line with new section 181(1D) of the Companies Act;
 - (ii) Article 74(A) provides that save as otherwise provided in the Companies Act, a Shareholder who is a "relevant intermediary" may appoint more than two proxies to attend, speak and vote at the same general meeting, but each proxy must be appointed to exercise the rights attached to a different share or shares held by such Shareholder, and where such Shareholder's form of proxy appoints more than two proxies, the number and class of shares in relation to which each proxy has been appointed must be specified in the form of proxy. This is in line with new section 181(1C) of the Companies Act;
 - (iii) Article 74(B) provides that the Company will be entitled and bound to reject an instrument of proxy lodged by a Depositor if he is not shown to have any shares entered against his name in the Depository Register as at 72 (previously 48) hours before the time of the relevant general meeting. Consequential changes have also been made in Articles 68 and 74(B) to make it clear that the number of votes which a Depositor or his proxy can cast on a poll is the number of shares entered against his name in the Depository Register as at 72 hours before the time of the relevant general meeting. This is in line with new section 81SJ(4) of the SFA; and

- (iv) Article 76(A) provides that the cut-off time for the deposit of proxies will be 72 (previously 48) hours before the time appointed for holding the general meeting. This is in line with section 178(1)(c) of the Companies Act, as amended pursuant to the Amendment Act.
- (h) Article 100 (Article 114 of Existing Constitution). Article 100, which relates to the Directors' power to fill casual vacancies and to appoint additional Directors, provides that the Company may also do so by Ordinary Resolution. This is in line with new section 149B of the Companies Act, which provides that unless the constitution otherwise provides, a company may appoint a director by ordinary resolution passed at a general meeting.
- (i) Article 113 (Articles 112 and 113 of the Existing Constitution). Article 113, which relates to the general powers of the Directors to manage the Company's business, clarifies that the business and affairs of the Company is to be managed by, or under the direction of or the supervision of, the Directors. This is in line with section 157A of the Companies Act, as amended pursuant to the Amendment Act.
- (j) Articles 122, 141 and 142 (Articles 129, 130, 152 and 154 of the Existing Constitution). Article 142, which relates to the sending of the Company's financial statements and related documents to Shareholders, additionally provides that such documents may, subject to the listing rules of the SGX-ST, be sent less than 14 days before the date of the general meeting with the agreement of all persons entitled to receive notices of general meetings. This is in line with new section 203(2) of the Companies Act, which provides that the requisite financial statements and other related documents may be sent less than 14 days before the date of the general meeting at which they are to be laid if all the persons entitled to receive notice of general meetings of the company so agree. Notwithstanding this proviso, the Company is currently required to comply with Rule 707(2) of the Listing Manual, which provides that an issuer must issue its annual report to shareholders and the SGX-ST at least 14 days before the date of its annual general meeting. The references to "financial statements" in Article 141 (relating to the presentation of the annual financial statements) and Article 142, instead of "profit and loss account", and Article 122 (relating to the authentication of company documents), are consistent with the updated terminology in the Companies Act.
- (k) Article 145 (Articles 159 and 161 of the Existing Constitution). Article 145, which relates to the service of notices to Shareholders, has new provisions to facilitate the electronic transmission of notices and documents following the introduction of simplified procedures for the sending of notices and documents electronically pursuant to new section 387C of the Companies Act.

Under new section 387C of the Companies Act, notices and documents may be given, sent or served using electronic communications with the express, implied or deemed consent of the member in accordance with the constitution of the company.

LETTER TO SHAREHOLDERS

There is “express consent” if a shareholder expressly agrees with the company that notices and documents may be given, sent or served on him using electronic communications. There is “deemed consent” if the constitution (a) provides for the use of electronic communications and specifies the mode of electronic communications, and (b) specifies that shareholders will be given an opportunity to elect, within a specified period of time, whether to receive electronic or physical copies of such notices and documents, and the shareholder fails to make an election within the specified period of time. There is “implied consent” if the constitution (a) provides for the use of electronic communications and specifies the mode of electronic communications, and (b) specifies that shareholders agree to receive such notices or documents by way of electronic communications and do not have a right to elect to receive physical copies of such notices and documents. Certain safeguards for the use of the deemed consent and implied consent regimes are prescribed under new regulation 89C of the Companies Regulations.

New section 387C of the Companies Act was introduced to give effect to recommendations by the Steering Committee for Review of the Companies Act to ease the rules for the use of electronic transmission and to make them less prescriptive, and these recommendations were accepted by the Ministry of Finance (“MOF”). In accepting these recommendations, the MOF noted the concerns of some shareholders who would prefer to have an option to receive physical copies of the notices and documents, notwithstanding that the company adopts the implied consent regime, and indicated that such shareholders could highlight their concerns when a company proposes amendments to its constitution to move to an implied consent regime.

Shareholders who are supportive of the new deemed consent and implied consent regimes for electronic communications may vote in favour of the adoption of the New Constitution, which incorporates new provisions (contained in Article 145) to facilitate these regimes, while Shareholders who are not supportive of the new regimes may vote against it.

Article 145 provides that:

- (i) notices and documents may be sent to Shareholders using electronic communications either to a Shareholder’s current address (which may be an email address) or by making it available on a website;
- (ii) for these purposes, a Shareholder is deemed to have agreed to receive such notice or document by way of electronic communications and shall not have a right to elect to receive a physical copy of such notice or document (this is the implied consent regime permitted under new section 387C); and
- (iii) notwithstanding sub-paragraph (ii) above, the Directors may decide to give Shareholders an opportunity to elect to opt out of receiving such notice or document by way of electronic communications, and a Shareholder is deemed to have consented to receive such notice or document by way of electronic communications if he was given such an opportunity but failed to opt out within the specified time (this is the deemed consent regime permitted under new section 387C).

LETTER TO SHAREHOLDERS

Article 145 additionally provides for when service is effected in the case of notices or documents sent by electronic communications. In particular, where a notice or document is made available on a website, it is deemed served on the date on which the notice or document is first made available on the website, unless otherwise provided under the Companies Act and/or other applicable regulations or procedures. Article 145 further provides that, in the case of service on a website, the Company must give separate notice of the publication of the notice or document on that website and the manner in which the notice or document may be accessed, to Shareholders by (1) sending such notice to them personally or through the post, (2) sending such notice to their current addresses (which may be email addresses), (3) advertisement in the daily press, and/or (4) by way of announcement on the SGX-ST.

Regulations were introduced on 3 January 2016 under the Companies Act (as amended by the Amendment Act) to provide for safeguards for the use of electronic communications under new section 387C of the Companies Act. These safeguards, in particular, exclude notices or documents relating to rights issues and take-overs from the application of section 387C, and thus are not permitted to be transmitted by electronic means pursuant to section 387C.

As at the Latest Practicable Date, the outcome of a public consultation by the SGX-ST on (inter alia) whether listed issuers should be allowed to send notices and documents to shareholders electronically under the new regimes permitted under the Companies Act is not known yet. In its consultation, the SGX-ST had also asked for comments on additional safeguards in relation to the new regimes. There is no certainty that the listing rules will be amended to allow electronic transmission of notices and documents under the new regimes. Going forward, for so long as the Company is listed on the SGX-ST, the Company will not make use of the new regimes to transmit notices or documents electronically to Shareholders unless the SGX-ST's listing rules allow it, and the Company will comply with the SGX-ST's listing rules on the subject.

- (i) Article 152 (Article 170 of the Existing Constitution). Article 152, which relates to Directors' indemnification, has been expanded to permit the Company, subject to the provisions of and so far as may be permitted by the Companies Act, to indemnify a Director against losses "to be incurred" by him in the execution of his duties. This is in line with new sections 163A and 163B of the Companies Act, which permit a company to lend, on specified terms, funds to a director for meeting expenditure incurred or to be incurred by him in defending court proceedings or regulatory investigations.

LETTER TO SHAREHOLDERS

2.3.2 Listing Manual

Rule 730(2) of the Listing Manual provides that if an issuer amends its articles or other constituent documents, they must be made consistent with all the listing rules prevailing at the time of amendment. The following Articles have been updated to ensure consistency with the listing rules of the SGX-ST prevailing as at the Latest Practicable Date, in compliance with Rule 730(2) of the Listing Manual:

- (a) Article 20(A) (Article 20(1) of the Existing Constitution). Article 20(A), which relates to the registration of joint holders and Depositors, clarifies that the Company shall not be bound to register more than three persons as registered holders of a share except in the case of executors or administrators or, additionally, trustees, of the estate of a deceased member. This clarification is in line with paragraph 4(d) of Appendix 2.2 of the Listing Manual.
- (b) Article 23 (Article 26 of Existing Constitution). Article 23, which relates to the replacement of share certificates, clarifies that a letter of indemnity is to be produced (if required) where a new certificate is to be issued in lieu of a defaced or worn out certificate. This clarification is in line with paragraph (1)(g) of Appendix 2.2 of the Listing Manual.
- (c) Article 54 (Articles 70 and 71 of Existing Constitution). Article 54, which relates to the provision of notices of general meetings, clarifies that the period of notice for the calling of a general meeting shall be exclusive of the day on which the notice is served or deemed to be served and of the day on which the meeting is to be held. This clarification is in line with paragraph 7 of Appendix 2.2 of the Listing Manual.
- (d) Article 64 (Article 79 of the Existing Constitution). Article 64, which relates to the method of voting at general meetings, contains provisions to make it clear that, if required by the listing rules of the SGX-ST, all resolutions at general meetings shall be voted by poll (unless such requirement is waived by the SGX-ST). This is in line with Rule 730A(2) of the Listing Manual which took effect on 1 August 2015.
- (e) Articles 65, 66 and 67 (Articles 81, 83 and 82 of the Existing Constitution). Articles 65, 66 and 67, which relate to conduct of the poll and incidental matters, make it clear that scrutineers will be appointed, if so required by the listing rules of the SGX-ST. This is in line with Rule 730A(3) of the Listing Manual which took effect on 1 August 2015.
- (f) Articles 93 and 96 (Article 100 of Existing Constitution). Article 93, which relates to the vacation of office of a Director in certain events, additionally provides that a Director shall cease to hold office if he is disqualified from acting as a director in any jurisdiction for reasons other than on technical grounds. Article 96 is a new provision which relates to the filling of the office vacated by a retiring Director in default circumstances except in certain cases. These changes are in line with paragraph (9)(n) of Appendix 2.2 of the Listing Manual.

LETTER TO SHAREHOLDERS

2.3.3 Personal Data

In general, under the Personal Data Protection Act 2012, an organisation can only collect, use or disclose the personal data of an individual with the individual's consent, and for a reasonable purpose which the organisation has made known to the individual. Article 154 specifies, inter alia, the purposes for which the Company and/or its agents and service providers would collect, use and disclose personal data of Shareholders and their appointed proxies or representatives.

2.3.4 General

A number of provisions in the Existing Constitution will be updated, streamlined and rationalised generally in the New Constitution (if adopted). They include the following:

- (a) Articles 19 and 21 (Article 23, 25 and 24 of the Existing Constitution). Article 19 provides that a share certificate need only state (inter alia) the number and class of the shares, whether the shares are fully or partly paid up, and the amount (if any) unpaid on the shares. This is in line with the Companies Act which no longer requires the amount paid on the shares to be stated in the share certificate relating to those shares. Article 21, which relates to entitlement to share certificates, rationalises the timeline for despatch of share certificates after the closing date of any application for shares or (as the case may be) the lodgement of a registrable transfer of shares in physical scrip, to within 10 Market Days or such other period as may be approved by the SGX-ST.
- (b) Articles 39(A), 40, 41, 42, 43 and 44 (Articles 46, 47, 54, 51, 52, 49, 50 and 58(2) of the Existing Constitution). Article 39(A), which relates to the form of transfer of shares, provides that this shall be in the form as approved by the SGX-ST and, additionally, in any other form acceptable to the Directors. Further, the dispensation accorded to CDP from having to sign the transfer form as transferee of the shares, is extended to a nominee of CDP. Articles 40, 41, 42, 43 and 44 relating to closure of the transfer books and Register of Members, the Directors' power to decline to register a transfer of shares in physical scrip and administrative fees for registration of probate, etc., are rationalised and updated in line with prevailing laws and regulations, where applicable.
- (c) Articles 52, 58, 60 and 61 (Articles 65, 66, 77, 76 and 78 of the Existing Constitution). These Articles, which relate to general meetings, have been updated and rationalised. In particular, Article 52 which relates to the time-frame for holding Annual General Meetings, clarifies that such meetings must be held once every calendar year and at intervals of not more than 15 months, unless otherwise permitted under the Companies Act; Article 58 rationalises the selection of a chairman for a General Meeting in the event that the Chairman of the Board, the Deputy Chairman, and none of the other Directors (in that sequential order) are unable or unwilling to take the chair; Article 60 which deals with adjournment of a General Meeting, provides that where the meeting was adjourned for lack of a quorum, at the adjourned meeting any two or more members present in person or by proxy will constitute a quorum; and Article 61 is a new provision which permits a General Meetings to be adjourned sine die (i.e. without a date fixed at the time of adjournment). Where a General Meeting is adjourned sine die, the time and place for the adjourned meeting is to be fixed by the Directors, and notice of the adjourned meeting must be given as in the case of the original meeting.

- (d) Articles 70 and 93(e) (Articles 87 and 100(d) of the Existing Constitution). These Articles have been updated to substitute the references to lunatic persons and persons of unsound mind with references to persons who are mentally disordered and incapable of managing himself or his affairs, following the enactment of the Mental Health (Care and Treatment) Act, Chapter 178A, which repealed and replaced the Mental Disorders and Treatment Act.
- (e) Articles 75 and 76 (Articles 89 and 90 of the Existing Constitution). Article 75, which relates to the appointment of proxies, has provisions to facilitate the appointment of a proxy through electronic means online. In particular, it provides that a Shareholder can elect to signify his approval for the appointment of a proxy via electronic communication, through such method and in such manner as may be approved by the Directors, in lieu of the present requirement of signing, or where applicable, the affixation of the corporate Shareholder's common seal. For the purpose of accommodating the deposit by Shareholders, and receipt by the Company, of electronic proxy instructions by Shareholders who elect to use the electronic appointment process, Article 76 (which relates to the deposit of proxies) has provisions which authorise the Directors to prescribe and determine the manner of receipt by the Company of the instrument appointing a proxy through digital means.
- (f) Articles 80, 82, 83, 87 and 88 (Articles 95, 98 and 99 of the Existing Constitution). Article 80, which relates to the number of Directors of the Company, provides for a minimum of two and there is no limitation on the maximum number (whereas Article 95 of the Existing Constitution sets the minimum number at 2 and the maximum number at 15). Articles 82 and 83 relate to Directors' remuneration and specify the types of Directors' remuneration which are subject to Shareholders' approval in line with prevailing listing rules of the SGX-ST and the Companies Act. Articles 87 and 88 are new provisions which relate to, in particular, the power of the Directors to appoint one or more Directors to an executive office or the office of Chairman or Deputy Chairman on such terms as may be determined by the Directors.
- (g) Articles 89, 90, 91 and 92 (Articles 109, 110 and 111 of the Existing Constitution). These Articles relate to the appointment, remuneration and office of Chief Executive Officer (or other equivalent position) ("CEO") of the Company and are similar to the equivalent provisions in the Existing Constitution relating to the appointment, remuneration and office of President and Managing Director ("MD") of the Company, except that unlike a President or an MD, a CEO need not be a Director.
- (h) Article 94 (Article 104 of the Existing Constitution). Article 94, which relates to the retirement of Directors by rotation, provides that one-third of the Directors for the time being, or if their number is not a multiple of three, then the number nearest to one-third of the Directors shall retire at each Annual General Meeting.

LETTER TO SHAREHOLDERS

- (i) Articles 104, 105 and 108 (Articles 117, 121, 101(2) and 127 of the Existing Constitution). These Articles, which relate generally to meetings and proceedings of the Directors, rationalise and streamline the equivalent provisions of the Existing Constitution. In particular, Article 104 which relates to meetings of the Directors, provides for questions to be decided by a majority of votes, and the chairman of the meeting to have a casting vote in the event of an equality of votes except where only two Directors are present and form a quorum or when only two Directors are competent to vote on the question; Article 105 provides that a Director cannot vote in respect of any matter in which he has a personal material interest, directly or indirectly, and that a Director will not count in the quorum at a meeting in relation to a resolution on which he is debarred from voting; and Article 108 which relates to written resolutions of the Directors, provides that a resolution signed (as approved) by a majority of Directors shall be as effective as a resolution duly passed at a meeting of the Directors.

- (j) Articles 131 and 133 (Articles 147 and 136 of the Existing Constitution). Article 131, which relates to the forfeiture of unclaimed dividends or monies after a period of six years from the date they are first payable, specifically provides that where CDP returns any such unclaimed dividends or monies to the Company, a Depositor shall not have any right or claim against the Company. Article 133, which relates to the payment of dividends in scrip, expands the equivalent provisions of Article 136 of the Existing Constitution to (inter alia) allow the implementation of a scrip dividend scheme for holders of any particular class of shares in the capital of the Company, and not only for holders of ordinary shares.

- (k) Article 139 (Article 148(3) of the Existing Constitution). Article 139, extends the power to issue free shares and/or to capitalise reserves, to them to be applied for share-based incentive plans, as well as for the benefit of non-executive Directors as part of their Directors' remuneration. This will enable the Company to deliver awards of shares to participants under a share-based incentive plan for the time being of the Company, as well as enable the Company, if it so desires, to remunerate its non-executive Directors (subject to Shareholders' approval being obtained therefor) by way of Directors' fees in the form of shares, or in a combination of cash and shares.

- (l) Article 128 of the Existing Constitution. Article 128 of the Existing Constitution, which relates principally to the obligation of the Directors to maintain minute books relating to, inter alia, board and shareholder resolutions is not replicated in the New Constitution as such requirement is obligatory on the part of the Company and its relevant officers, pursuant to the Companies Act and thus need not be restated in the New Constitution.

2.4 Appendices 1 and 2. The text of the principal provisions in the New Constitution which are significantly different from the equivalent provisions in the Existing Constitution, or which have been included in the New Constitution as new provisions, is set out in Appendix 1 to this Letter and the main differences are blacklined. The New Constitution is set out in the Appendix 2 to this Letter. The Proposed Adoption of the New Constitution is subject to Shareholders' approval.

CALLS ON SHARES

24. The Directors may from time to time make calls upon the members in respect of any moneys unpaid on their shares but subject always to the terms of issue of such shares. A call shall be deemed to have been made at the time when the resolution of the Directors authorising the call was passed and may be made payable by instalments. Calls on shares
25. Each member shall (subject to receiving at least 14 days' notice specifying the time or times and place of payment) pay to the Company at the time or times and place so specified the amount called on his shares. The joint holders of a share shall be jointly and severally liable to pay all calls in respect thereof. A call may be revoked or postponed as the Directors may determine. Notice of calls
26. If a sum called in respect of a share is not paid before or on the day appointed for payment thereof, the person from whom the sum is due shall pay interest on the sum from the day appointed for payment thereof to the time of actual payment at such rate (not exceeding ten per cent. per annum) as the Directors may determine but the Directors shall be at liberty in any case or cases to waive payment of such interest wholly or in part. Interest on unpaid calls
27. Any sum which by the terms of issue of a share becomes payable upon allotment or at any fixed date shall for all the purposes of this Constitution be deemed to be a call duly made and payable on the date on which by the terms of issue the same becomes payable. In case of non-payment all the relevant provisions of this Constitution as to payment of interest and expenses, forfeiture or otherwise shall apply as if such sum had become payable by virtue of a call duly made and notified. When calls made and payable
28. The Directors may on the issue of shares differentiate between the holders as to the amount of calls to be paid and the times of payment. Power of Directors to differentiate
29. The Directors may if they think fit receive from any member willing to advance the same, all or any part of the moneys uncalled and unpaid upon the shares held by him and such payment in advance of calls shall extinguish pro tanto the liability upon the shares in respect of which it is made and upon the money so received (until and to the extent that the same would but for such advance become payable) the Company may pay interest at such rate (not exceeding eight per cent. per annum) as the member paying such sum and the Directors may agree. Capital paid on shares in advance of calls shall not, while carrying interest, confer a right to participate in profits. Payment of calls in advance

FORFEITURE AND LIEN

30. If a member fails to pay in full any call or instalment of a call on the due date for payment thereof, the Directors may at any time thereafter serve a notice on him requiring payment of so much of the call or instalment as is unpaid together with any interest which may have accrued thereon and any expenses incurred by the Company by reason of such non-payment. Notice requiring payment of calls

APPENDIX 2

31. The notice shall name a further day (not being less than 14 days from the date of service of the notice) on or before which and the place where the payment required by the notice is to be made, and shall state that in the event of non-payment in accordance therewith the shares on which the call has been made will be liable to be forfeited. Notice to state place and time of payment
32. If the requirements of any such notice as aforesaid are not complied with, any share in respect of which such notice has been given may at any time thereafter, before payment of all calls and interest and expenses due in respect thereof has been made, be forfeited by a resolution of the Directors to that effect. Such forfeiture shall include all dividends declared in respect of the forfeited share and not actually paid before forfeiture. The Directors may accept a surrender of any share liable to be forfeited hereunder. Forfeiture on non-compliance with notice
33. A share so forfeited or surrendered shall become the property of the Company and may be sold, re-allotted or otherwise disposed of either to the person who was before such forfeiture or surrender the holder thereof or entitled thereto or to any other person upon such terms and in such manner as the Directors shall think fit and at any time before a sale, re-allotment or disposition the forfeiture or surrender may be cancelled on such terms as the Directors think fit. The Directors may, if necessary, authorise some person to transfer or effect the transfer of a forfeited or surrendered share to any such other person as aforesaid. Sale of forfeited shares
34. A member whose shares have been forfeited or surrendered shall cease to be a member in respect of the shares but shall notwithstanding the forfeiture or surrender remain liable to pay to the Company all moneys which at the date of forfeiture or surrender were presently payable by him to the Company in respect of the shares with interest thereon at eight per cent. per annum (or such lower rate as the Directors may determine) from the date of forfeiture or surrender until payment and the Directors may at their absolute discretion enforce payment without any allowance for the value of the shares at that time of forfeiture or surrender or waive payment in whole or in part. Rights and liabilities of members whose shares have been forfeited
35. The Company shall have a first and paramount lien on every share (not being a fully paid share) and dividends from time to time declared in respect of such shares. Such lien shall be restricted to unpaid calls and instalments upon the specific shares in respect of which such moneys are due and unpaid, and to such amounts as the Company may be called upon by law to pay in respect of the shares of the member or deceased member. The Directors may waive any lien which has arisen and may resolve that any share shall for some limited period be exempt wholly or partially from the provisions of this Article. Company to have paramount lien
36. The Company may sell in such manner as the Directors think fit any share on which the Company has a lien, but no sale shall be made unless some sum in respect of which the lien exists is presently payable nor until the expiration of 14 days after a notice in writing stating and demanding payment of the sum presently payable and giving notice of intention to sell in default shall have been given to the holder for the time being of the share or the person entitled thereto by reason of his death or bankruptcy. Sale of shares subject to lien

37. The net proceeds of such sale after payment of the costs of such sale shall be applied in or towards payment or satisfaction of the debts or liabilities owed to the Company and any residue shall be paid to the person entitled to the shares at the time of the sale or to his executors, administrators or assigns, or as he may direct. For the purpose of giving effect to any such sale the Directors may authorise some person to transfer or effect the transfer of the shares sold to the purchaser. Application of sale proceeds
38. A statutory declaration in writing that the declarant is a Director or the Secretary of the Company and that a share has been duly forfeited or surrendered or sold to satisfy a lien of the Company on a date stated in the declaration shall be conclusive evidence of the facts therein stated as against all persons claiming to be entitled to the share. Such declaration and the receipt of the Company for the consideration (if any) given for the share on the sale, re-allotment or disposal thereof together (where the same be required) with the share certificate delivered to a purchaser (or where the purchaser is a Depositor, to the Depository or its nominee (as the case may be)) or allottee thereof shall (subject to the execution of a transfer if the same be required) constitute good title to the share and the share shall be registered in the name of the person to whom the share is sold, re-allotted or disposed of or, where such person is a Depositor, the Company shall procure that his name be entered in the Depository Register in respect of the share so sold, re-allotted or disposed of. Such person shall not be bound to see to the application of the purchase money (if any) nor shall his title to the share be affected by any irregularity or invalidity in the proceedings relating to the forfeiture, surrender, sale, re-allotment or disposal of the share. Title to forfeited or surrendered shares

The instrument of transfer of any share shall be signed by or on behalf of both the transferor and the transferee and be witnessed, Provided always that an instrument of transfer in respect of which the transferee is the Depository or its nominee (as the case may be) shall be effective although not signed or witnessed by or on behalf of the Depository or its nominee (as the case may be). The transferor shall remain the holder of the shares concerned until the name of the transferee is entered in the Register of Members in respect thereof. Form and execution of transfer

Directors' power to decline to register a transfer

- (c) the instrument of transfer is deposited at the Office or at such other place (if any) as the Directors may appoint accompanied by a certificate of payment of stamp duty (if any), the certificates of the shares to which the transfer relates, and such other evidence as the Directors may reasonably require to show the right of the transferor to make the transfer and, if the instrument of transfer is executed by some other person on his behalf, the authority of the person so to do; and
- (d) the instrument of transfer is in respect of only one class of shares.
42. If the Directors refuse to register a transfer of any shares, they shall within ten Market Days after the date on which the transfer was lodged with the Company send to the transferor and the transferee notice of the refusal as required by the Statutes. Notice of refusal to register a transfer

APPENDIX 2

55. (A) Every notice calling a General Meeting shall specify the place and the day and hour of the meeting, and there shall appear with reasonable prominence in every such notice a statement that a member entitled to attend and vote is entitled to appoint a proxy to attend and vote instead of him and that a proxy need not be a member of the Company. If there be no such Chairman or Deputy Chairman, or if at any meeting neither be present within fifteen minutes after the time appointed for holding the meeting and willing to act, the Directors present shall choose one of their number (or, if no Director be present or if all the Directors present decline to take the chair, the members present shall choose one of their number) to be chairman of the meeting. Chairman of General Meeting

APPENDIX 2

59. No business other than the appointment of a chairman shall be transacted at any General Meeting unless a quorum is present at the time when the meeting proceeds to business. Save as herein otherwise provided, the quorum at any General Meeting shall not be less than two members present in person or by proxy. Provided always that (i) a proxy representing more than one member shall only count as one member for the purpose of determining the quorum; and (ii) where a member is represented by more than one proxy such proxies shall count as only one member for the purpose of determining the quorum. Quorum
60. If within 30 minutes from the time appointed for a General Meeting (or such longer interval as the chairman of the meeting may think fit to allow) a quorum is not present, the meeting, if convened on the requisition of members, shall be dissolved. In any other case it shall stand adjourned to the same day in the next week (or if that day is a public holiday then to the next business day following that public holiday) at the same time and place or such other day, time or place as the Directors may by not less than ten days' notice appoint. The chairman of any General Meeting at which a quorum is present may with the consent of the meeting (and shall if so directed by the meeting) adjourn the meeting from time to time (or sine die) and from place to place, but no business shall be transacted at any adjourned meeting except business which might lawfully have been transacted at the meeting from which the adjournment took place. Where a meeting is adjourned sine die, the time and place for the adjourned meeting shall be fixed by the Directors. When a meeting is adjourned for 30 days or more or sine die, not less than seven days' notice of the adjourned meeting shall be given in like manner as in the case of the original meeting. 64. (A) If required by the listing rules of the Stock Exchange, all resolutions at General Meetings shall be voted by poll (unless such requirement is waived by the Stock Exchange). Mandatory polling

- (B) Subject to Article 64(A), at any General Meeting a resolution put to the vote of the meeting shall be decided on a show of hands unless a poll is (before or on the declaration of the result of the show of hands) demanded by:
- (a) the chairman of the meeting; or
 - (b) not less than two members present in person or by proxy and entitled to vote at the meeting; or
 - (c) a member present in person or by proxy and representing not less than five per cent. of the total voting rights of all the members having the right to vote at the meeting; or
 - (d) a member present in person or by proxy and holding shares conferring a right to vote at the meeting, being shares on which an aggregate sum has been paid up equal to not less than five per cent. of the total sum paid up on all the shares conferring that right.
- A demand for a poll made pursuant to this Article 64(B) may be withdrawn only with the approval of the chairman of the meeting, and any such demand shall not prevent the continuance of the meeting for the transaction of any business other than the question on which the poll has been demanded. Unless a poll is demanded, a declaration by the chairman of the meeting that a resolution has been carried, or carried unanimously, or by a particular majority, or lost, and an entry to that effect in the minute book, shall be conclusive evidence of that fact without proof of the number or proportion of the votes recorded for or against such resolution.
65. Where a poll is taken, it shall be taken in such manner (including the use of ballot or voting papers) as the chairman of the meeting may direct, and the result of the poll shall be deemed to be the resolution of the meeting at which the poll was taken. The chairman of the meeting may (and, if required by the listing rules of the Stock Exchange or if so directed by the meeting, shall) appoint scrutineers and may adjourn the meeting to some place and time fixed by him for the purpose of declaring the result of the poll. Taking a poll
66. A poll on the choice of a chairman or on a question of adjournment shall be taken immediately. A poll on any other question shall be taken either immediately or at such subsequent time (not being more than 30 days from the date of the meeting) and place as the chairman may direct. No notice need be given of a poll not taken immediately. Timing for taking a poll

Every member who is present in person or by proxy shall:
- How members may vote
- (a) on a poll, have one vote for every share which he holds or represents; and
 - (b) on a show of hands, have one vote, Provided always that:
 - (i) in the case of a member who is not a relevant intermediary and who is represented by two proxies, only one of the two proxies as determined by that member or, failing such determination, by the chairman of the meeting (or by a person authorised by him) in his sole discretion shall be entitled to vote on a show of hands; and
 - (ii) in the case of a member who is a relevant intermediary and who is represented by two or more proxies, each proxy shall be entitled to vote on a show of hands.
- For the purpose of determining the number of votes which a member, being a Depositor, or his proxy may cast at any General Meeting on a poll, the reference to shares held or represented shall, in relation to shares of that Depositor, be the number of shares entered against his name in the Depository Register as at 72 hours before the time of the relevant General Meeting as certified by the Depository to the Company.
69.
